2. 대화를 듣고, 여자의 의견으로 가장 적절한 것을 고르시오.

M: Honey, I just saw Amy folding laundry in the living room. Did you ask her to do it?

W: Well, she said she wanted to help with the housework.

M: That's fine. But don't you think she's too young to do housework? She's just six years old.

W: Maybe. But I think doing housework helps children improve their self-esteem.

M: Why do you think so?

W: I read in a book that when kids participate in housework, they feel like they're more important to the family.

M: Hmm, that makes sense.

W: Besides, children often gain a sense of achievement from completing household tasks.

M: Oh, and maybe it could help Amy to feel proud of herself, too.

W: Exactly. That's why children who do housework often have higher self-esteem.

M: You're right. Then let's think about other kinds of housework Amy would enjoy.

W: Sounds good.

3. 대화를 듣고, 두 사람의 관계를 가장 잘 나타낸 것을 고르시오.

W: Hello, Mr. Miller. It's been a while. How's your business?

M: The restaurant is doing pretty good. Jessica, I'd like to buy some purple flowers.

W: I'm sorry. We don't have any purple flowers right now. Why are you looking for that specific color?

M: I need that color to decorate my restaurant. My customer is having a company anniversary party, and its logo is purple.

W: I see. When do you need the flowers?

M: This Friday.

W: Okay. Shall I ask my boss to order purple lilies?

M: That'd be perfect. I didn't know there were purple lilies.

W: They're rare and stand for pride and success. They'd be a great fit for this event in your restaurant.

M: Great to know. And I could put notes about the flower's meaning on the tables.

W: Good idea. My boss will call you with the details.

M: Thanks for all your help.

4. 대화를 듣고, 그림에서 대화의 내용과 일치하지 않는 것을 고르시오.

W: Right. Take a look at this picture of the first floor. I love the stairs next to the windows.

M: Yeah, the view from the stairs is amazing.

W: For sure. Do you remember the square clock on the wall?

M: Of course. It's been there since we first visited. Oh, there are two speakers beside the bookcase now.

W: Fantastic. I love to listen to music while I read.

M: That's the best. And look at the stripe-patterned cushion on the chair. I love it.

W: So do I. I actually have the same one at home.

M: Cool. Hey, check out the lamp on the table.

W: Yeah, it'll be easier to read now. I really like how the book cafe has been remodeled.

M: Thanks. By the way, what are you doing?

W: I was just about to change the water in the fish tank.

M: Do you need some help?

W: No, it's okay. But thanks for asking.

M: Okay. Be careful with the water heater. You almost broke it last time.

W: I'm not going to make the same mistake twice. Oh, we need to replace the filter in the tank with a new one.

W: Okay. I'll take it.

M: What about rackets for adults in case you want to play with your son?

W: Oh, that's a great idea.

M: I recommend these two. This is $30 and the other is $55. But the $55 racket is much lighter.

W: I really like the lighter one, but it's a bit expensive.

M: Well, if you buy the lighter one, I can give you a dozen shuttlecocks worth $10 for free. You'll need shuttlecocks anyway.

W: That's a good deal. Then I'll get the lighter one.

M: Okay. So, the rackets for you and your son. And of course, the free shuttlecocks.

W: Thank you. Here's my credit card.

M: Well, I think I have to change the place of the event.
W: Why? Is there another event scheduled in that room?
M: No, I already checked.
W: Then is it because of the repair work going on next door?
M: That's not an issue. It starts after school.
W: So, why do you want to change the place?
M: Actually, more students signed up than I expected.
W: Oh, I see. How about using the conference room, then? It has more space.
M: Great idea. I'll go check if it's available and let the students know.

[16~17] 다음을 듣고, 물음에 답하십시오.

W: Hello, students. I'm sure you've encountered some wild animals in cities. Let's look at some reasons that wild animals have done well and their populations have grown in cities. First, pigeons were rare in cities like Paris, but now you can easily find them. Urban expansion reduced the number of animals hunting them, and food waste in cities has been a great food source for them. And, while London is not by the sea, it has many seagulls. This is because nesting on the roofs of buildings protects their chicks from danger. Next, Delhi is home to about 30,000 monkeys. Experts say that monkeys' high intelligence and comfort with humans let them flourish in the city. Lastly, in the 19th century, there was a small population of squirrels in New York City. Squirrels were seen as public pets, so the city planted nut-bearing trees as their food source. This increased their population in the city. Let's watch a video about these animals' city lives.
